Spotted-necked otter (Hydrictis maculicollis) – smaller, neck pattern varies

Scat – fresh (left), aged (right), tubular form (lower left – roughly 11-21mm diameter; no hair or seeds present

Water Mongoose scat on right – hair, crab, or feathers may be present

African Otter Network – africanotternetwork.wordpress.com; africanotternetwork@gmail.com
Spotted track – front foot, 40 – 45mm wide. Male tracks larger than female’s.

Water Mongoose track - +/- 30mm wide

Spotted-necked otter track